New Business:

- One Book One Beaverton by Adult Services Reference Assistants Anne LaVallee and Blaine Ross
The Adult Services team is launching a community-wide read "event" that will take place over several months. The library will be inviting people to all read the same fiction book. The title will be announced on Saturday, November 3rd at a special kick-off party from 11am-1pm, and 200-300 copies of the book will be given away in the library that day. Starting in January, the library will use the book as a jumping-off point and theme-setter for programs, discussions, craft nights, story slams, etc. One Book One Beaverton will culminate with the author giving a talk in the Library auditorium on Saturday, February 2nd. Board members are invited to a special meet-and-greet with the author the morning of February 2nd.
- New Library Hours Victoria Campbell reports that the new hours are going well. Managers have been helping staff with closing early on Thursdays, and so far the response from the public has been mostly positive. On the first Sunday with earlier hours, Main had 22 people waiting to get in when we opened and Murray-Scholls had 13 people waiting. John Henshell asked if we can track patron comments about the new hours.
- 80th Anniversary November 5th Victoria Campbell reports that the library will celebrate its 80th Anniversary from November 3rd to November 10th. The library will host a birthday celebration on November 6th.
- WCCLS New Building Open House Victoria Campbell shared an invitation to attend the WCCLS New Building Open House on September 18th from 2-4pm. Victoria Campbell reported that Lisa Tattersall has been appointed to be the WCCLS Manager.
- Beaverton Boards and Commissions Open House Victoria Campbell shared an invitation to attend the city's Open House for Boards and Commissions on Thursday, September 13th from 6-7:30 pm. Pam Waggoner asked to see where current members are in their terms to the Library Board. Kristin Fidler agreed to look up the information and send it to the members.
- Leading with Race report for Washington County Victoria Campbell brought in copies of the executive summary for Leading with Race and offered to lead a discussion on the findings at the board's next meeting.
- Friends Wish List Board members reviewed the Library's Wish List for Friend's funds. Victoria Campbell agreed to bring the Friends Trust Fund Balance amount to the next meeting. Nancy Nkiwane MOTIONED and Sara Rajkumar SECONDED to spend funds. Motion CARRIED.

Comment cards Eleven reviewed for August for Main and Murray-Scholls.

Set Date for Next Library Advisory Board Meeting:

- The next Board meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, October 10th, 2018, at 6:30 p.m., in the Administrative Conference Room on the second floor at the main library.

Adjournment:

- There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by:

Victoria Campbell, Interim Library Director
