

CAPTURING HISTORY: STUDENTS WRITE ABOUT COVID

Beaverton City Library is assisting with a Girl Scouts Gold Award project by collecting writings from students in grades 6-12 about the pandemic. How has the COVID-19 pandemic affected your life? Your writing can be in the form of an essay, a personal story, a poem, or any other form you choose.

How has the COVID-19 pandemic
affected you?

Submit your writing
April 1 - June 30, 2021

Submit your writing in a PDF or
Word document online:

www.BeavertonLibrary.org/COVIDWriting

Selected writing will be submitted to the Oregon Historical Society's 'Share Your Story' project. The selected submissions will also be assembled into a booklet and added to Beaverton City Library's local history collection. Some writing may also be published and can be kept anonymous if you prefer.

Guidelines

- The Capturing History writing project is open to students in grades 6-12 in Oregon.
- Submitted writing must be your original work.
- Your writing may be submitted to the Oregon Historical Society or assembled into a booklet and added to the local history collection at Beaverton City Library. Some writing may also be published. Your writing can be kept anonymous if you choose.
- E-mail questions to iduncanson@BeavertonOregon.gov

BEAVERTON CITY LIBRARY

12375 SW 5th St | Beaverton, OR 97005 | 503-644-2197
www.BeavertonLibrary.org/Teens | @beavertonlib

